FYAH WYAH, Good Word Artist™ and Veteran Reggae Performer, LAUNCHES NEW CD IN SOUTH FLORIDA AND VOWS TO SUPPORT JAMAICAN CHILDREN WAITING FOR HEART SURGERY

FEBRUARY 11, 2008

Veteran reggae performer and international Good Word Artist™, FYAH WYAH, will release his new album “Love in the Air” on Sunday, March 2 from 6 to 9 pm at MertoCafe on the Las Olas Riverfront in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

In celebration of the spirit of the album to spread love, good words, and good works, the March 2 performance is also a charity fundraiser for the Jamaican Children’s Heart Fund, a 501c3 medical charity that provides pediatric open heart surgery to children in critical need on the island of Jamaica - www.jamaicanchildrenshearturgery.org

Donations are $20 at the door and include an autographed copy of FYAH WYAH’s “Love in the Air “ CD. A $45 donation includes an all-you-can-eat Jamaican Food Buffet with authentic entrees, side dishes, salad, and desert. Limited VIP tables are available by calling Gwen Grant at Jamaican Children’s Heart at 305-218-0756.

FYAH WYAH has been restoring hope and bringing renewal to audiences through his music and spoken word performances for more than 25 years. The new CD’s single “Good Words” is climbing global charts and expresses the belief that “words alone can heal you, words alone can build you, words alone can make you great.” Having traveled worldwide with the likes of Eek-A-Mouse, Alpha Bondy, Steel Pulse, Don Carlos, Freedy McGregor, Big Mountain, Junior Reid and others, FYAH WYAH believes the “time has come for reggae to once again motivate the world in positive, global ways.”

FYAH is currently scheduling performances, motivational workshops at school and churches, and special charity events throughout Florida for 2008. For more information, please email jdonhines@gmail.com or call (561) 598-9662. FYAH WYAH is also available for broadcast interviews and has been both a host and frequent guest on inspirational, music, and Caribbean radio formats.
